Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA Promotes Taylor Reinson to Director of Animal Operations

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA (August 28, 2023) — The Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA is pleased to announce the promotion of Taylor Reinson to Director of Animal Operations, effective immediately. In this new role, Reinson will be responsible for Animal Care and Behavior Management, in addition to all Foster, Adoption, Intake & Rescue/Transfer operations.

Reinson joined the CASPCA as FAIR Director on June 28th, with deep experience in animal welfare. She holds a BA in Business Management from Lynchburg College, having previously been honored by attending Governor's School for Engineering. Her past experience includes the following roles:

- Shelter Operations Manager, Charlotte, NC
- Shelter Supervisor, Gaston County Animal Care & Enforcement
- Adoption Center Manager, Lynchburg Humane Society
- Lifesaving Outcome Specialist, Best Friends Animal Sanctuary

“Taylor has made considerable progress and improvement in shelter operations in her short time with us,” says Interim Executive Director Sue Friedman. “She continues to provide impressive industry insight and we look forward to continuing our growth with her new promotion to Director of Animal Operations.”
