FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA Hires FAIR Director

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA (June 28, 2023) — The Charlottesville Area SPCA is excited to announce a new member of the executive team who will be leading all Foster, Adoption, Intake & Rescue/Transfer operations as FAIR Director. Taylor Maddox begins her leadership role on June 28th, with deep experience in all of these mission-critical areas.

"The team is pleased to join me in welcoming Taylor Maddox to CASPCA," says Interim Executive Director Sue Friedman. "She brings impressive experience and skills to our organization, and we look forward to continuing our growth with her leadership role."

Maddox holds a BA in Business Management from Lynchburg College, having previously been honored by attending Governor's School for Engineering. Her animal welfare experience includes the following roles:

- Shelter Operations Manager, Charlotte, NC
- Shelter Supervisor, Gaston County Animal Care & Enforcement
- Adoption Center Manager, Lynchburg Humane Society
- Lifesaving Outcome Specialist, Best Friends Animal Sanctuary

The Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA is also pleased to welcome a feline enrichment specialist and a canine enrichment specialist as part of the Animal Behavior Department. A manager for this important animal welfare department will be announced soon.
