Come Search for Peter Cat-n-tail at the SPCA!

Charlottesville, Virginia: Friday, March 21st the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA (at 3355 Berkmar Drive) is having a scavenger hunt type game of its own, the Search for Peter Cat-n-tail. So, practice up for all the hidden Easter egg hunts and search for the cats, disguised as a rabbits, at the SPCA. There will be a prize for every child who finds all of the Peter Cat-n-tails. Not only will the kids have fun but you will meet some of the finest cats in town. If you are considering adopting a pet this Easter, consider a cat, instead of a rabbit or little chick, as the cats at the SPCA would make a forever loving companion for the entire family.

Makena Yarbrough, Director of Operations says that “parent think they should get a rabbit for their children for Easter but many people do not realize that rabbits are fragile animals that require special care and those homes with high-spirited children can be very stressful for a rabbit. Cats are cuddly and loving just like they imagine a rabbit to be, so take home a companion that will thrive with any family.” Now is the time to adopt since we are running a number of specials on cats including the two cats for the price of one. On Good Friday we are open from 12-6, so come find Peter Cat-n-tail.

The Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA is a nonprofit animal welfare organization that provides a safe environment for the lost, abandoned, and homeless animals of Charlottesville and Albemarle County, and places them in good homes. We strive to set a standard of excellence and leadership in animal care, humane education, and progressive animal welfare programs.
