SPCA CAROLING FOR A CAUSE!

Charlottesville, Virginia: Staff, managers, and volunteers from the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA (the “SPCA”) will be going Christmas Caroling this Sunday, December 20th in the Forest Lakes subdivision starting at 6:30pm.

Executive Director Susanne Kogut says: “One of our wonderful animal care staff, Anna Stover, had the idea to go caroling with our dogs. Before we knew it, she had a team of volunteers and staff wanting to join in. So Sunday we will share all the joy animals give people and our singing talents as well. Well, no promises about the singing, but we know the dogs will brighten your holiday. I am sure some of the hounds will also join in the caroling spirit. It’s all about sharing our lives and our holidays with our animal friends through out the community.”

For holiday hours at all of our locations and holiday giving opportunities please visit our website, www.caspca.org. Also, we will be at several holiday events around the city, so keep an eye out for us.

The Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA is a nonprofit animal welfare organization that provides a safe environment for the lost, abandoned, and homeless animals of Charlottesville and Albemarle County, and places them in good homes. We strive to set a standard of excellence and leadership in animal care, humane education, and progressive animal welfare programs.
