Introducing SPCA Heavyweight Champions You get you a Whole Lot of Love for just a Little Dough

Charlottesville, Virginia: This month you can get a whole lot of love for only $10 at the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA! The SPCA introduces its Heavyweight Champions Adoption Special: during March, all cats weighing more than 10 pounds can be adopted for only $10. With more than 100 fat cats ready to knock you out with their good looks and winning personalities at the SPCA, the SPCA has something for everyone. The $10 adoption fee includes services normally costing hundreds of dollars: spay/neuter, age appropriate vaccinations, de-worming, FIV/Felv testing, a free medical exam from participating vets, ID tag, a free animal behavior CD and a lifetime of priceless cuddles and companionship.

Meet some of the SPCA Heavyweight Contenders:

Introducing, the legendary and lovely Delilah -- weighing in at 14.6 pounds, Delilah loves cuddling with good friends and being pretty. Her favorite moves include long naps and chowing down on kibble. This lovely lady is looking for someone to avoid a fitness routine with.

Introducing, the friendly and affectionate Raja -- weighing in at 14.5 pounds, Raja loves sleeping, eating and sleeping some more. His favorite moves include chatting and rubbing his face on yours. This laid back buddy is looking for a quiet home where he can do what he does best—sleep, eat, get lots of love and sleep some more!

Introducing 16.6 pounds of pure love, Jude! Since Jude came to the SPCA, he is taking his sad song of living on the streets and making it better. Jude loves attention and being with people. His favorite moves include playing with toys and working out his energy at the scratching post. This FIV+ feline is looking for a forever home with lots of love, yummy food and plenty of exercise.
